

MY LIFE AS A COLD WAR SPY

AN EVENING WITH MAJOR GENERAL PETER WILLIAMS CMG OBE

Wed 13 Mar 19 7.30PM (Pre-drinks at 7pm)

Alabaré, with its headquarters and homes in Salisbury, is the largest provider of Homes for Veterans outside London, assisting hundreds of ex-service personnel to re-establish themselves in civilian life. Alabaré provides help for rough sleepers, young people coming out of care, young mothers and babies and adults with learning disabilities.

Our Speaker, Major General Peter Williams is an accomplished speaker with an entertaining and humorous manner. His career focused on military intelligence and liaison but was also spread across the spectrum from operational command to military diplomacy during and after the Cold War. During the Cold War he served in Berlin from 1973 to 1975 as a Regimental Intelligence Officer. He then spent more than four years in the 1980s in Berlin and East Germany as an officer in the British Commander'-In-Chief 's Mission to the Group of Soviet Forces in Germany (known as BRIXMIS), in effect working as a military spy. In 1983 he was awarded an MBE for his success as an intelligence collector and analyst. This promises to be a memorable talk.
